I. 次の英文を読み、後の設問に答えなさい。

Two or three years ago, Mr and Mrs Brown were invited to a Christmas party at a hotel. They parked their car at the *car-park outside and went into the hotel. Mr Brown always said, “I have never got *drunk.” His host knew (1)it well and said to him, “Mr Brown, have a lot of drinks, please,” but Mr Brown said *in his mind, “I don’t drink too much.”

During the party, Mrs Brown found that she did not have her small bag with her, so she asked her husband to go back to the car and get (2)it to her. He did so, but on his way back to the hotel *entrance, he heard a sound of a car *horn from the car-park. He thought someone *might be (あ) trouble, so he went over to the car and (3)found out [sound / coming / the / where / was]. (4)彼は車の中に座っている一匹の小さな熊を見つけた. He was *blowing the horn of it.

When Mr Brown got back to the party, he told several people about the black bear, but [X] they did not believe him and thought he was drunk. When he took them out to the car-park (5)to show that his story was true, he found that *the car with the bear in it was not there.

There were many jokes about Mr Brown’s black bear during the *following days, so he [Y] *put an advertisement in the local paper: ‘(6)Is there anyone who saw a black bear who was blowing the horn in a car outside the Grand Hotel at about 7 p.m. on Christmas Day? If anyone is, please phone...’

Two days later a lady (7)(call) Mrs White phoned Mr Brown to say a story. She said on the phone, “My husband and I left our pet bear Blacky in our car outside the Grand Hotel for a few minutes that evening. I think he blew the horn.” Mrs White did not *seem to think there was anything strange about (8)that. “Blacky likes blowing car horns,” she said, “and we don’t care (い) we are not *actually driving the car.”
