I. 次の英文を読んで、後の設問に答えなさい。

Sally was a college student at an art college in London, and she did not have much money like most students. It was going to be her mother's birthday soon, and ⁽¹⁾she wondered what she could buy for her as a present that would be nice but not too expensive.

Sally's college was in London, but she lived in the town far away from there, so every day she had an hour's *journey by train in the morning, and ⁽²⁾the same in the evening.

At lunch time one day, a week before her mother's birthday, she decided to have a quick sandwich and ⁽³⁾a () () coffee instead of her *usual meal in the college restaurant, and then go shopping near her college ⁽⁴⁾to [find / a / her mother / to / present / try / nice]. She walked around for half an hour to ⁽⁵⁾() () a good present, and she *came across a shop that was selling good and cheap umbrellas. She thought that one of ⁽⁶⁾those would solve ⁽⁷⁾her problem, because her mother's umbrella was very old and dirty.

“Now which color will I choose?” she thought. “Well, I think ⁽⁸⁾a black one would be the most useful. You can carry that when you are wearing clothes of any color, can't you?” She *made up her mind, and she bought a *lovely black umbrella and took it back to the college with her.

⁽⁹⁾On her way back home in the train that evening, she felt so hungry that she decided to go to the *buffet car to eat something. When she got out of the *compartment, she couldn't see any *passengers there, so she left the black umbrella above her seat. In the buffet car, she enjoyed a hamburger and some orange juice. After that, when she [X], she found three passengers in the compartment, and *to her surprise, the umbrella disappeared!

Sally *burst into tears when she saw that the umbrella was not there. The three passengers felt very sorry for her and asked what was happening. She said, “I bought a black umbrella for my mother, but it disappeared. I [Y] at the next station. ⁽¹⁰⁾どうしたらいいか分かりません about my umbrella.” One of the passengers said, “Don't worry about it. Maybe someone took the umbrella *by mistake, not *on purpose. He or she may bring it back after you get out of the train. In that case, we will send it to your mother.” The passengers asked her where her mother lived, *in order to be [Z] to her.

The next week, Sally received a letter from her mother, and was very surprised to read it. Her letter said, “Thank you very much for your lovely presents, but ⁽¹¹⁾why did you send me 'three' black umbrellas?”
